

The March 24, 2020, meeting of the Person County Economic Development Commission (EDC) was originally cancelled due to scheduling conflicts with the annual meeting of the North Carolina Economic Development Association; however, the need to comply with the NC Executive Order 121 in response to the COVID-19 also ultimately contributed to why the EDC did not meet in March.